

I am very opposed to a few companies owning many media outlets. I believe the limiting of monopoly in the media better ensures our continued democracy. I have been very disturbed by the one sided reporting of the cable news networks, the hate and intolerance conveyed against any opinion other than theirs and the trend to making the news propoganda. I do not want to see our media regress to the point of having only one opinion broadcast. Thank you.